PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners, Friends and Visitors,

Christ IS Risen! Those words were uttered on the very first day of the resurrection. They have been whispered in the secret places and called out boldly in many places. The blessed fact of this is that we use the word, "is". We do not say Christ was risen. It is not an event that has come and gone.

Christ IS Risen! It is our hope in our trying times. It is the source of our joy in the wonder-filled times. Our joy that hath no end." "On Easter Day the veil between time and eternity thins to gossamer." "Easter spells out beauty, the rare beauty of new life."

Christ IS Risen! Because He IS Risen, you and I can live risen lives. If there is any trouble, any fray, we can take Jesus' hand and rise above it. If there is any error or sin on our part, we can take Jesus' loving hand and rise beyond it. If there is any joy, we can take Jesus' blessed hand and rise right into it! May you be blessed to live a risen life. In the dark times, may you be blessed to see the Light that will not be overcome.

In the bleh times, my you be blessed to know God's strength. In the light and bright times, may you be blessed to enter into the fullness of it through God's joy! May this Easter bring all blessings upon each and everyone of you and may you always be a sparkle of the Divine Light that shined from the Empty Tomb to enlighten the darkness of our world.

Let us keep in prayer all of the Easter Flower Memorial dedications that can be found listed in this bulletin!
