WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS - APRIL 25, 2021

READING Hebrews 13:18-25 GOSPEL John 21:1-14

“Today the Lord continues to call others to follow Him.
We should not wait to be perfect in order to respond

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

2021 Marks the 58th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life.

While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life.

LITURGICALLY SPEAKING

This Sunday reminds us of the appearance of Jesus to seven of his disciples on the Lake of Tiberias. They are: Peter, Thomas, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, John the beloved disciple, and two others unnamed. It is a miraculous catch through the power of the word of the living and risen Jesus. It symbolizes the catching of men by the Apostles. The Church Fathers refers to the fishing net as the Church, whose mission is to gather in the living Christ all the nations of the earth.

Lord Jesus, you died and were buried like all mortals. By your resurrection you conquered evil and trampled upon death. You gave us life and opened for us the gates of Heaven. As we stumble along the journey of life, grant us peace and hope so that we may remain in the assembly of believers and inherit Eternal Life. Amen.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

This Sunday reminds us of the apparition of Jesus to seven of His disciples near the Sea of Tiberius. He repeats the Gospel of Hawareyeen Tuesday. A miraculous catch by the Living Word and the power of the Risen Lord Jesus symbolizes the fishing of men at the hands of the Apostles. The Church fathers see the net as a symbol of the Church and her mission, gathering in by the Risen Christ all nations of the earth, into the fullness of grace and salvation.

Jesus' very first meeting and His last meeting with the Disciples takes place near the sea. On this last occasion, Peter and the others have gone fishing. They hadn't caught a thing. When they approach the shore they see a man waiting for them. He asks them for some fish. They tell Him that they have caught nothing. He suggests they throw the net out once more. This time they catch 153 big fish. They realize that the Man on the shore is Jesus.

Afterwards, Jesus said to them: "Come and have breakfast". None of the disciples dare ask Him, "who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. They knew Him after breaking the bread with Him, and we know Jesus when we share at His banquet and eat His Body and Blood. Jesus likes to surprise us, and the best surprise is His Resurrection and His apparition to His disciples. It is a sign of hope for a better future. Remember that Jesus is waiting for you. Jesus comes at a time you won't expect Him. He will come through the poor and the needy, and the sick.

In Christ,

Chorbishop Alfred Badawi, Pastor
