DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday, the Sunday after Easter, April 28th.

The message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy, is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy.

In her Diary, St. Faustina records a special promise given to her by Jesus. He told her to communicate it to the whole world:

"My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy." (699)

In three places in her Diary, St. Faustina records our Lord's promises of specific, extraordinary graces:

"I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy." (1109)

The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (699)

To receive these graces, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy.

By these conditions, our Lord is emphasizing the value of confession and Holy Communion as miracles of mercy. The Eucharist is Jesus, Himself, the Living God, longing to pour Himself as Mercy into our hearts.

In addition, our Lord says through St. Faustina that we are to perform acts of mercy:

"Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy." (742)

"The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive." (1578)

The worthy reception of the Eucharist on Divine Mercy Sunday is sufficient to obtain the extraordinary graces promised by Jesus.

A plenary indulgence, obtained by fulfilling the usual conditions, also is available.

"I promise that the soul that will venerate this image (of Divine Mercy) will not perish. I also promise victory over (its) enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory." (48)

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord:

Jesus Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia!

In today's Gospel, on that first Sunday after Easter Sunday, Saint Thomas experienced Christ's presence and witnessed the marks of God's love. His doubt was overcome with belief and he cried out "My Lord and my God!" Let us continue to be aware of Christ's presence and mercy given to us through the sacraments.

Jesus knew human beings well. He knew that we would have arguments, disagreements, even fights with one another. He gave us help in order to become people who seek peace and reconciliation with others. Within normal family life, there are many opportunities for conflict. Jesus did not promise us the absence of conflict in our lives. Instead, He gave us the gifts of peace, forgiveness, and reconciliation so that we could reduce conflict.

The measure of Christian family life is not the absence of conflict, but the manner in which conflict is resolved. Filled with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, we ask Jesus to help us to bring peace and forgiveness to situations of conflict within our families.

Question for Children:

How can you believe in Jesus whom you have never seen?

Question for Adults:

Jesus' words of greeting were, "Peace be with you," followed by the invitation to forgive sins. How does forgiveness bring peace to you? How does it change the world?

Let us receive Jesus with devotion and love, and let us continue to remember one another in prayer.

WITH GRATITUDE!

THANK YOU to all who helped lead the Stations of the Cross every Friday of Lent and to those who helped make the celebrations of the Easter Triduum so prayerful. Thank you to our choir, directors, cantors, and all choir members. Your countless hours of preparation and rehearsal bore fruit in your leading us in song throughout all of the different celebrations. Thank you to our Lectors who proclaimed God's Word with faith. Thank you to the Altar Servers who assisted at the altar. Thank you to our Knights of Columbus who provided an Honor Guard on Holy Thursday night. Thank you to the LAS and all who worked behind the scenes with the set up and take down of all of our beautiful displays, flowers, Altar linens, etc. Your efforts contribute immensely to the atmosphere of the church and help to set a prayerful tone to our celebrations. Thank you to the Ushers for their coordination of activities and weekly commitments.

Special thanks to the Palm Sunday Brunch Committee and all their volunteers, and to La Saj Lebanese Bistro for yet another wonderful meal! Thank you to all coffee hour volunteers for overseeing our weekly time of fellowship over coffee and donuts. Last and not least, thank you to the Office Staff and Deacon Mike for their time, efforts and ministries!

And finally, thank you to all of you, the faith-filled people of St. Sharbel Parish, whose prayers and support keep this parish the vibrant community it is!

With deep appreciation and gratitude, my Easter prayers and blessings,

In Christ,

Chorbishop Alfred Badawi, Pastor
