our Priests

Friday, July 21st

7 - 8 PM

St. Sharbel Church

Let us join together to pray for Chorbishop Alfred and Father Chris and together lift them in prayer!

Let us spend an hour as a parish family to pray for them,

that they obtain the graces needed to be holy models of the faith, and for all of their personal intentions.

Bring the whole family to pray and sign a card
with a personal message for our priests!

ABOUNA CHRIS' CORNER

Greetings Beloved Parish Family,

What a joy and blessing it is to finally arrive to our Patron's feast day weekend – the Feast of St. Sharbel! God is good!

St. Sharbel was a simple man who deeply loved God and surrendered everything he had (though little) to God. He lived a life of sacrifice and prayer in his monastery and kept his focus on God. Having lived a very silent life of contemplation and prayer, St. Sharbel is now one of the most well-known saints in the world. Many different religions, cultures, and ethnicities have sought refuge from St. Sharbel amidst the difficulties of life. And so, for us, what a blessing to have a church in honor of this incredible saint who has reached the ends of the earth.

This weekend is a reminder of the great gift of St. Sharbel to all of us. God has given us a friend and role model to accompany us during this life in the joyful and sorrowful moments. God has given us a saint from our own Maronite Church which has even caught the attention of our Pope and the Church of Rome. We ought to be VERY proud of our saint, Saint Sharbel, and of our Church which has been a beacon of light and hope to so many people in the Metro-Detroit area and abroad.

We pray that St. Sharbel continues to draw us all closer to God through prayer and healing as we continue to work for the upbuilding of God's Church through the intercession of our very own beloved St. Sharbel! May we know that our friend, the powerful saint, St. Sharbel is always watching over our church and parish family.

Congratulations to all our parishioners, friends, and families. Wishing you all many more Feast Day Celebrations to come!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Chris Nahra

Associate Pastor

DEDICATION AND GRATITUDE

Leonard A Thomas

Administrative Center

Dedicated to Family, Friends, and Parishioners

July 16, 2023

This Sunday, July 16, 2023 the dedication of our new Administrative Center will take place by Bishop A. Elias Zaidan. It is with deep gratitude that we thank and honor Mr. Leonard A. Thomas for his generosity and faithful support of St. Sharbel Maronite Catholic Church throughout the years. His vision and hands on support has brought this new addition of our Church complex to a successful completion for future generations of Maronite Catholics to thrive. Thank you, Leonard, and God bless you!
