Special thanks to Elie Eid and Elias Nahed for their time spent in maintaining our flower beds and yard work!

PARISH HOLY HOUR

HOLY HOUR FOR OUR PRIESTS
FRIDAY, JULY 21, 2023
7 - 8 PM
ST. SHARBEL CHURCH

Join us for a parish-wide Holy Hour for our Priests!

Let us join together to pray for Chorbishop Alfred and Father Chris and together lift them in prayer!

Let us spend an hour as a parish family to pray for them, that they obtain the graces needed to be holy models of the faith,
and to follow the saintly example of Saint John Vianney,
for the devil said to him:

“If there were three such priests as you,
my kingdom would be ruined!”

“The Christian faithful ... should realize their obligations to their priests. Sharing their cares, they should help their priests by prayer and work insofar as possible so that their priests might more readily overcome difficulties and be able to fulfill their duties more fruitfully.”

~ Pope Paul VI

ABOUT A CHRIS' CORNER

Greetings St. Sharbel Parish Family,

About a Chris here! This weekend, I want to reflect on the NAM Convention that I am currently attending in Providence, RI.

NAM has been important in the history of the Maronite
Church in America because it joined the Maronite families before the establishment of the Eparchies. The convention would also be crucial in implementing various aspects of our Liturgy and ministries. Bishops and laity would come from afar for this NAM Convention every year with the purpose to move the Maronite Church forward into the next generation.

Next year, we are hosting this monumental convention with the theme “Speak Lord for Your Servant is Listening.” We will all gather, listen, and discern what the Maronite Church needs from the laity and from the clergy.

We are beyond excited to have over hundreds of Maronites come from across the country to the Renaissance Hotel in Downtown Detroit for a weekend of prayer, festivities, and fellowship.

Please pray for our St. Sharbel Community that we may be strengthened to host this incredible event filled with joy and peace for the whole Church!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Chris Nahra

Associate Pastor
