In union with Christ's passion, we offer up a sacrifice upon the fleshy altars of our hearts all that we lack.

In return we receive from on high
the fullness of Christ's body, blood, soul
and divinity in the Eucharist,
and we see the Word become flesh
in our own lives.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners and Friends,
 Happy Corpus Christi!

On this first weekend of summer, we celebrate the feast of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Now that we have completed the Lent/Easter cycle of our church year, we celebrate a few additional Solemnities of the Lord before we return to the steady cycle of Sundays in the cycle of Pentecost Season. Last Sunday we celebrated the Feast of the Holy Trinity. Now we celebrate the second of our two special feasts – “The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ” (traditionally known as “Corpus Christi”).

The Eucharist is the heart of the Christian community. At the Mass, the faithful come together to receive Jesus Christ, the Bread of Life. In the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John, thousands of disciples walked away from Jesus out of disbelief when Jesus told them that He Himself is the bread of life that has come down from heaven and that His flesh is true food and His blood is true drink. Christ fulfilled that teaching at the Last Supper: the night before He offered His Body and Blood on the altar of the cross, He instituted the sacrament of His Body and Blood on the altar of the Mass. The greatest act of mercy and love (the crucifixion) has been perpetually captured in the Mass. Every time we approach the altar at Mass, we approach Christ; we are renewed in our union with Christ; we receive Jesus Himself. Our food for the journey of life, which can be a long journey, is no ordinary bread, but it is Jesus Himself—the real presence of Jesus’ body, blood, soul and divinity. Let us stay close to Christ, who is present in the most Blessed Sacrament of the altar. Let us receive Him with devotion, humility, and love. He loves you, and He gives Himself to you in this most precious and sacred sacrament.

Let us renew our love for our Lord in the Holy Eucharist and give thanks to Christ, who is present in the consecrated host at Mass, for the gift of the Holy Eucharist, the sacrament of His love and salvation.

Join us for an indoor procession with the Eucharist immediately following the 4:00 PM Mass this Saturday and this Sunday at 9:30 and 11:30 AM.

GRADUATES

Our 2021 Graduates will be honored at all Masses next weekend. Please submit your graduate’s information no later than Monday morning in order for it to be printed in the bulletin.

CALLED TO SERVE AS A LECTOR

In light of recent events, we have had to put a hold on our Lectors Ministry. We would like to begin scheduling readers as before. For those who wish to be a part of our Lectors schedule, please show your interest by emailing the Church at: stsharbelmichigan@gmail.com or call the Office.

Please be sure to indicate which Liturgy you will be attending as well as if you prefer to read the Arabic or English Epistle. For your convenience, readings will be e-mailed or texted to you in order for you to prepare ahead of time. Thank you and we hope to hear from you soon.

Know of my prayers for all of you at the Mass, and please continue to pray for me, Deacon Mike and one another.

In Christ,
 Chorbishop Alfred, Pastor
