LITURGICALLY SPEAKING

As we celebrate Mother's Day this Sunday, we are mindful that the month of May is set aside to remember and honor our Blessed Mother Mary. I would like to spend time reflecting on Mary in our faith and in our lives.

We have respect and admiration for Mary's example and her crucial role in the plan of salvation. Even though she was afraid, her deep faith and purity motivated her to say yes to God's will (Luke 1:26-38). In her womb, God united humanity to Himself when He became one of us. Mary was closely united to Jesus, keeping all that He said and did in her heart (Luke 2:19). As Mary stood at the foot of the cross, Christ's heart was pierced by a sword made of metal and Mary's was pierced by a sword of sorrow, as Simeon had foretold in Luke 2:34-35. As Christ gave up His life for us on the cross, He also gave us His mother when He spoke to His beloved disciple and to all disciples, "Behold your mother" (John 19:27).

Mary, our Blessed Mother, participated in the key moments of Jesus' work of salvation: at the conception and birth of Christ, His Passion and death, and the birth of the Church on Pentecost (Acts 1:14). It doesn't end there, because Christ has brought her to heaven. She was assumed into Heaven, body and soul, and reigns in heaven as the Queen of heaven and earth (Revelations 12). In doing so, Christ has fulfilled God's promise of fidelity to the throne of David, the king of Israel (2 Sam. 7:16). Like the kings in the line of David, such as King Solomon, whose mothers would be queen and sit at the king's right hand--"At your right hand stands the queen, clothed in gold of Ophir" (Psalm 45)-- so too does Christ respect and love His mother by giving her the same honor. Our Blessed Mother Mary sits in heaven with her Son and savior, looking upon us with love and speaking to Jesus about us, praying for us.

Mary loves us and wants us to live happily with her Son forever in heaven. She is a powerful intercessor and a loving mother; so let us ask her for her prayers. I would like to encourage you to pray the Rosary at least once a week this month and to turn toward her with a daily "Hail Mary". Pray as a family, and place flowers by a picture of Mary in your house this month. May she continue to bring us closer to our Lord, who is our hope and salvation.

EPARCHIAL BISHOP'S APPEAL

Please help us to reach our 2021 goal of $12,000.00. We can do this with the participation of each family in our parish.

Thank you to all who have already contributed to the 2021 Eparchial Bishop Annual Appeal.

Your generosity is deeply appreciated!

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

"Jesus changes our sins into forgiveness and our fears into trust. In His Cross our hope is reborn again and again." ~ Pope Francis

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

We wish God's choicest blessings on all of the mothers, grandmothers, Godmothers and stepmothers of our parish. May God bless you for all of the wonderful things that you do. And in a special way as we gather around the table of the Lord, we remember our mothers who now live the fullness of life with the Lord. We pray that God reward you for your goodness as you continue to pray for us in His loving presence.

We also want to remember those for whom this day brings incredible pain. Many couples, most unknown to others, struggle with infertility and the inability to become parents. Others may be alienated from their parents or their children, and this holiday only intensifies that pain. And we pray for mother's who have lost children to an untimely death.

GIANNA HOUSE

In a special way today and throughout this month we pray for young mother's who choose life for their baby in the face of adversity, opposition and a lack of support and material means. Through our prayers and donation of much needed items to Gianna House may they find safety, security and grow closer to our Lord. Please know that all of you have a special place in our prayers today.

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

On Thursday, May 13th we celebrate our Lord's Ascension into heaven, which we profess every Sunday during the Creed. On the fortieth day after Easter, Jesus ascended into Heaven. Then, during the nine days that followed, the Apostles prepared to receive the Holy Spirit. This was the first novena (traditional nine days of prayer). On the fiftieth day after Easter, after seven weeks had passed (a week of weeks), the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles, uniting us to Christ and giving the Church the grace and power to continue the work of Christ so that the whole world may be one in Christ.

Today, let us keep our eyes fixed on the Heavenly Lord as He sends us out to live and proclaim the faith. We are reminded in one of the prefaces of the Ascension that Jesus "ascended, not to distance himself from our lowly state but that we, his members, might be confident of following where he, our Head and Founder has gone before."

We remember that the Holy Spirit unites us to Jesus and has been given to us through the Church. With faith, hope, and charity, we are called to follow our Lord to heaven, and this calling impacts the way we approach our daily lives. Let us strive to live in friendship with our Lord. As we prepare to celebrate Pentecost, I'd like to encourage all of us to pray, "Come, Holy Spirit" throughout this week, inviting the Holy Spirit into our lives, friendships, workplaces, parish, and homes.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and You shall renew the face of the earth. O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

In Christ,
Chorbishop Alfred Badawi, Pastor
