COPING WITH GRIEF DURING THE HOLIDAYS

The time of preparation for the holidays can be filled with much anticipation and joy. But for many, the holiday season is not always as merry as we want it to be. It can be a time of sadness and emptiness, of remembering how things used to be when a loved one was part of our lives.

Whether you have lost someone close to you or not, the holidays can bring up many complicated feelings. It is completely normal and important to know you are not alone.

Come join us this Wednesday, November 16th from 11 AM to 1 PM as we enjoy a time together of support, encouragement and understanding.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Friends and Visitors,

This Sunday begins the Season of the Happy Announcements with the Sunday of the Announcement to Zachariah. Right after Thanksgiving, we begin to prepare to celebrate Christmas.

As we prepare with putting up decorations, buying presents, and organizing and going to dinners and parties, let us remember why:

“Let us remember in particular, as we look at the streets and squares of the cities decorated with dazzling lights, that these lights refer us to another light, invisible to the eyes but not to the heart. While we admire them, while we light the candles in churches or the illuminations of the crib and the Christmas tree in our homes, may our souls be open to the true spiritual light brought to all people of good will. The God-with-us, born in Bethlehem of the Virgin Mary, is the Star of our lives!” (Pope Benedict XVI, Dec. 21, 2005).

As Christmas approaches, I hope it does not just become another busy season. Imagine what a blessing it is during this time when you quiet your soul to receive the Prince of Peace. Please don't confuse the month of December or the season of Announcements with the Christmas Season. December is a time to prepare, and Christmas is a time to celebrate.

Let us keep each other in prayer. Be assured of my prayers for you and all of your intentions.

Sincerely yours,
Chorbishop Alfred Badawi, Pastor
