The Order of Saint Sharbel

Supporting Catholic Seminarians of the Maronite Church in the United States

JOIN THE ORDER OF SAINT SHARBEL TODAY...

The seminarians you help today will be the priests of tomorrow who will serve the Maronite Church in America!

The Order of Saint Sharbel provides financial support to seminarians of the Maronite Church in the United States. Our seminarians study at Our Lady of Lebanon Maronite Seminary in Washington, D.C. The seminary celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2011, and continues to play a vital role in the education of our priests for the 21st century.

We ask that you prayerfully consider supporting our seminarians by becoming a member of the Order of Saint Sharbel.

*New members to the Order of Saint Sharbel will be installed by Bishop A. Elias Zaidan at St. Sharbel Maronite Catholic Church on the weekend of September 24 - 25, 2022.

The seminarians you help today will be the priests of tomorrow who will serve the Maronite Church in America.

The Order of Saint Sharbel was named for Sharbel Makhlouf (1828-98), who was canonized by Pope Paul VI in 1977. Saint Sharbel was a priest of the Maronite Church in Lebanon who, following the example of Saint Maron for whom the Church is named, lived as a hermit from 1875 until his death. His life of holiness and dedication to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ make him an outstanding role model for priests.

Dear Friends and Visitors,

“We need a Church capable of walking at people’s side, of doing more than simply listening to them; a Church which accompanies them on their journey.”
~ Pope Francis

This week the Church celebrates two great feasts. On September 14th we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, and on September 15th we celebrate the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows. These two feast days draw our attention to the Cross of Christ and the sacrifice He made for our salvation. St. Paul, boast in the Cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

“May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.” Galatians 6:14

By conforming our lives to the mystery of His Cross, we have hope of experiencing the glories of His Resurrection. This points to the incredible reality that Christ wants to live His mysteries in you. By willingly uniting yourself to the Cross, whatever those crosses look like in your life, you can be confident that, just like for Christ, the Cross is not the end of the story.

So let us love the Cross and give ourselves to Jesus, with the unwavering hope of experiencing the glory of His Resurrection!

WE REMEMBER 9/11

I suspect that we all remember and will probably always remember, exactly where we were and what we were doing on September 11, 2001. Sunday we observe the 21st Anniversary of the Terrorist Attacks on our country.

Now that we are past the Labor Day holiday, we welcome back all those who were able to spend the summer weekends away. In spite of the presence of the coronavirus pandemic, a number of our parishioners were able to spend the summer weekends out of town.

SEPTEMBER 22ND MONTHLY HEALING MASS

Our monthly Healing Mass and Devotion of Saint Sharbel will be celebrated on Thursday, September 22, 2022 at 7 PM. The celebrant will be Fr. Roger Chukri, Maronite Monk of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Ann Arbor, MI. As we mark the 4 Year Anniversary of being in our new church location, we will have a light reception following this Mass.

Celebrated monthly in honor of the miraculous healings through the intercession of St. Sharbel, the Divine Liturgy is celebrated followed by a blessing with an icon of St. Sharbel, veneration of his relics, and the celebration of the Anointing of the Sick.

All are encouraged to attend this powerful and anointed time of Sacramental healing.

It is wonderful to see so much activity all around us. The summer with its slower pace is clearly gone. It is good to be in such an alive and exciting time of year.

You and your intentions remain in my prayers,
Chorbishop Alfred Badawi,
Pastor
