*God of justice, we pray for all workers,
that they would receive fair compensation and treatment in their labor.*

WORK IS A FORM OF CONTINUING PARTICIPATION IN GOD'S CREATION

The observance of Labor Day launches us into the month of September, and for many, marks the conclusion of the summer season. For Catholics, work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. Labor Day provides an opportunity to give thanks to God for the gift of work which 'anoints' us with dignity; to ask for God's assistance in providing our nation and world with work for all that is decent and fair, and to invite God's help in making us faithful stewards of his creation to the benefit of all humankind. It is also an opportunity to pray for those who must work in jobs that ignore their dignity and for those who've lost their jobs and are seeking work at this time.

Dear Friends and Visitors,

“Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. Work, to use an image, ‘anoints’ us with dignity, fills us with dignity, makes us similar to God, who has worked and still works, who always acts...” – Pope Francis

On this first weekend in September, we celebrate the 14th Sunday of Pentecost, and the end of the season of Pentecost. Next Sunday we begin the last season of the Liturgical Year with the Season of the Holy Cross.

Labor Day weekend is upon us and is filled with many different memories and meanings. For many of us it signals the end of summer and all that is associated with summer. It is a time for a BBQ with family and friends. It is the weekend the summer home is closed. This weekend the boat is pulled out of the water and placed in storage. It is the time for moving from one season of the year to another.

Labor Day is an annual celebration of the social and economic achievements of all American workers. This weekend we pray for those who have fruitful jobs and also pray for those who are looking for work at this time.

WAYS TO MAKE PRAYER PART OF YOUR LABOR DAY WEEKEND!

- Take a few minutes, morning and evening, to give thanks to God for a restful night's sleep.
- Seek His blessings throughout the day and thank God in the evening for all that's taken place that day.
- Make an examination of conscience and look for areas where you can improve.
- Pray at meals, or while driving in the car.
- Pray the Rosary as a family, spend time with Jesus in Eucharistic adoration, or another type of devotion.
- Attend Mass, or if unable to attend in person, watch Mass online or on TV.

You and your intentions remain in my prayers,
Chorbishop Alfred Badawi, Pastor

Just 4 Kids Summer Fun

Dear Families,

Looking at Friday's Just 4 Kids Summer Fun and seeing the kids excitement, happiness, laugh and energy made me realize and praise all the blessings we have from our Lord.

We were blessed to be able to organize this event in less than a week. We went through roadblocks, but the power of God and our Patron St Sharbel made this event happens.

I cannot find the words to thank Chorbishop Alfred for his trust and support to organize this event.

I appreciate each one of you for bringing your precious ones to make the Just 4 Kids Summer Fun a memorable event.

I am very thankful for all the donors and volunteers who supported our kids event.

We are really grateful for a successful event.

We look forward to many more to come.

With sincere appreciation,

Rita Fares

CONGRATULATIONS!
